CORAM : S.A. BOBDE, J.

August 12, 2005.

P.C.:

1. This petition is between the same parties as in Writ Petition no.2493 of 2005. The petitioners have challenged the order below exh.41 granting police protection for one day. The Court has granted police protection in order to prevent disturbance of law and order since it appeared to the Court that the party may do so. It is true that an order granting police protection is not granted lightly, but in a given case, there is no doubt that it can and should be granted. I find no reason to interfere with the discretion of the trial Court based on its understanding of the situation. It must be made clear that the order grants police protection only for one day to be specified by the respondent.

2. In these circumstances, this petition is also dismissed.
